

252803

Butler, David

From: Marty McNinch <mmcninch1@gmail.com>
Sent: Friday, October 03, 2014 2:54 PM
To: Butler, David
Cc: PSC_Clerk's Office Distribution Group; PSC_Directive-Order-Hearing-Distribution-List; timika.shafeek-horton@duke-energy.com; Bateman, Andrew; Hudson, Shannon; Brian.Franklin@duke-energy.com; Yarbrough, Barbara G (Barbara.Yarbrough@duke-energy.com); Easterling, Deborah; Wheat, Jo
Subject: Re: Hearing Examiner Directive - Setting New Pre-filing Dates and New Hearing Date - McNinch v. Duke- Docket No. 2014-302-E.doc

Thank you.

On 10/3/14, Butler, David <David.Butler@psc.sc.gov> wrote:

> Mr. McNinch:

> Under the circumstances, the request for extension to Tuesday is > granted for your wife's responsive testimony. I am not in the office, > so I will not be able to issue a directive until Monday. Please be > aware that your direct testimony at the hearing will be limited to > what you have reduced to writing.

> David Butler

> Hearing Examiner

>

> Sent from my iPhone

>

>> On Oct 3, 2014, at 9:26 AM, "Marty McNinch" <mmcninch1@gmail.com> wrote:

>>

>> Dear Mr. Butler,

>>

>> My Wife has been bed ridden and sick this week from high blood >> glucose levels and her liver enzymes are elevated with vomiting. I >> tried to read to her the testimonies of DE and ORC but she has been >> to sick to respond accurately to testimonies. She is feeling a >> little better today.

>>

>> She wants to make a motion that her response date be extended from >> Oct. 3 to Tuesday Oct. 7.

>>

>> She says she should be well enough through the weekend and Monday to >> hear and understand the testimonies to respond. I have to read it to >> her as she has bad eyesight and needs new glasses then dictate to me >> to write her response.

>>

>> Sincerely,

>>

>> Marty McNinch

>>

>>

>>